

Central Catholic Junior Senior High School Admissions Process

Completion of the Admissions Packet

Upon completion and submission of the following pieces to the Enrollment Director, an interview will be arranged with the Admissions Committee:

- Admissions Application
- Belief Statement (signature page only)
- Essay from the student on the reasons why they wish to attend Central Catholic
- Essay from parents on the reasons why they wish their child to attend Central Catholic
- School records to include:
 - Jr/Sr High transcript and/or grades to date including credits earned
 - Discipline records – no students will be admitted with a Category III (fighting, alcohol, illegal controlled substances, truancy, etc.) discipline problem as determined by the receiving school
 - School profile including grading scale and an explanation of subject content if abbreviations or course numbers are used on the transcript
 - Attendance records (Students may not have missed any more than six days of school the previous semester from their previous school. Exceptions are made for medical reasons with an appropriate note from their doctor.)
 - Health records
 - Educational or Psychological evaluations
 - 504 or Individual Educational Plans (Special education students will be accepted if all of their needs can be accommodated.)
- $100 non-refundable application fee

Transfer students from within the Lafayette area will be accepted at the senior high school for a starting date at the beginning of the first and second semesters. Junior high school students will be accepted for a starting date at the beginning of the quarter unless otherwise approved by the principal.

Students must have their own transportation and should arrive on time and be picked up after school.

Interview with the Admissions Committee

The Admissions Committee consists of the Principal, the Asst. Principal, the Director of Guidance, and the Campus Minister. An admissions interview does not guarantee admission into Central Catholic. The principal, based on recommendations of the admissions committee, makes the final determination of admission.

Completion of Enrollment

Upon the approval, the following forms are to be completed and submitted to the school office.

- Parish verification form
- Tuition Payment Methods form
- Supplemental Enrollment Information form
- LCSS Emergency form
- Directory form
- Home Language Survey

The principal reserves the right to exercise discretion.

Failure to adhere to these guidelines may result in the student being denied enrollment at Central Catholic Jr.-Sr. High School.
