

as we learn about our faith, learn our lessons, and learn how to serve others!

Jesus teaches responsibility. Others are respected. You are safe.

CHANGE for CHANGE: All week St. Mary students will be collecting change for LUM who makes positive changes as they serve our community. Monday we will collect pennies, Tuesday we will collect nickels, Wednesday we will collect dimes, Thursday we will collect quarters, and on Friday we will collect dollars.
Sunday January 29 Catholic schools bring JOY to our parish!	Catholic School students belonging to St. Mary Cathedral parish will join together to celebrate Mass at 9:00 at St. Mary. Students will be active participants in the Mass by reading, singing, and processing. ALL students are asked to wear their school uniform to Mass to proudly represent our schools. Students will meet in the gathering space to process in together and then will proceed to sit with their families throughout the church. Each student wearing their uniform will receive a NUT card after Mass to be used on February 7th.
Monday January 30 Catholic schools bring JOY to our community!	Students will send messages of love and care to the homebound of our parish and to those in nursing homes. Notes and pictures will be created to bring a smile to those who most need it. The children will decorate bookmarks with a prayer that will help the elderly in our community remember that someone cares about them each time they use it. Ronald McDonald will put on a show for the students in the afternoon. (Bring pennies for LUM!)
Tuesday January 31 Catholic schools bring JOY to our families.	Families will be involved in a special way today! The children will come to school dressed as their parent or another adult they admire and want to model when they grow up. Families will work together to create a paper "Reading Quilt" to welcome all to the Media Center. Families will decorate a paper quilt piece together depicting one of their favorite books. These papers will be returned to school for the children to weave together into a large quilt to display in the hall to the Media Center. (Bring nickels for LUM!)
Wednesday February 1 Catholic schools bring JOY to our LCSS students.	Sharing Day at Central Catholic begins with all students being dropped off at the front doors of the high school at 8:00 a.m. St. Mary students will meet their teachers in the CC cafeteria. We will be taking busses back to St. Mary at 11:00. The entire Lafayette Catholic School System, over 900 strong, will gather for Mass at 9:00 with Bishop Doherty and our priests. All are invited! The elementary school students are paired with a CC class to enjoy the morning together. All students are asked to bring canned food for St. Ann's Food Kitchen. (Bring dimes for LUM!)
Thursday February 2 Catholic schools bring JOY to our students.	"Clash Day" is a day for students to enjoy coming to school in mismatched clothing. Students are in for a treat as they take part in a "Teacher Swap". A different teacher will take over their classroom for a fun activity. Students will enjoy a D.E.A.R. time as they drop everything and read a favorite book together. (Bring quarters for LUM!)
Friday February 3 Catholic schools bring JOY to our teachers, staff, and priests.	Teachers and students will come to school dressed to support their favorite football team as we prepare to celebrate the Super Bowl in Indianapolis! Teachers and staff will be treated to lunch. (Bring dollars for LUM!) In the afternoon we will celebrate "Sundaes with Father" as we treat our priests (and our students, teachers, and staff) to a delicious ice cream sundae and thank our priests for making our Sundays special by working to bring us closer to God! THANKS TO ALL FOR A WONDERFUL, JOY-FILLED WEEK OF CELEBRATION AND THANKS FOR OUR CATHOLIC SCHOOLS!
